

5/31/04

I pay for the services of XM radio and feel that it should not be up to the National Association of Broadcasters and lobbyists to dictate what I am permitted to hear. The last I heard this is still a free country.

William Klass